

Intake/Interview & Quality Review Training

2018 Filing Season

The Objectives of this Training

At the end of this lesson you will be able to describe:

- The purpose of following a consistent Intake/Interview and Quality Review process.
- The different sections of Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview and Quality Review Sheet.
- The basic steps of a complete Intake Process.
- The basic steps of a complete Interview Process.
- The basic steps of a complete Quality Review Process.

Introduction

Taxpayers using services offered through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) Programs should be confident they receive quality service. This includes having an accurate tax return prepared.

A basic component of preparing an accurate return begins with explaining the tax preparation process, listening to the taxpayer, and asking the right questions.

Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview & Quality Review Sheet, is a tool designed to help ensure taxpayers are given the opportunity to provide all needed information before their tax return is prepared. When used properly, this form effectively contributes to accurate tax return preparation.

The Purpose of this Training

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) continues to emphasize the positive correlation between the proper use of the Intake/Interview and Quality Review Process and the preparation of an accurate tax return.

IRS oversight reviews indicate consistent use of complete intake, interview, and quality review processes results in more accurate returns. When properly used, accuracy of VITA/TCE returns has increased.

Per Quality Site Requirement #2, it is mandatory that Form 13614-C is completed for each tax return prepared. Volunteers who refuse to prepare returns without following the Intake/Interview process are in violation of the Volunteer Standards of Conduct.

Our data shows that, in most cases, Form 13614-C is available at all sites and taxpayers are completing the form. However, there are still challenges with certified volunteer preparers not using the tool during the interview and quality review processes.

This training is designed to encourage all volunteers to follow a thorough and consistent Intake/interview and Quality Review Process.

The Intake Process

Completing Form 13614-C

Methods for completing Form 13614-C may vary from site to site. In most cases, the taxpayer completes pages 1 through 3 of the Form 13614-C before meeting with a tax preparer. The preparer then discusses all of the provided taxpayer information.

Some sites prefer that volunteer tax preparers complete the intake form with the taxpayer while conducting an interview.

At all sites, volunteers will complete the form with the taxpayer if assistance is required. No matter what method used, all questions on Form 13614-C must be answered.

All taxpayers at Virtual VITA sites also need to complete form 14446 to give consent for the site to prepare the return using the method(s) outlined in Part I of the form. Both spouses need to complete and sign this form if married filing jointly.

Note: Form 13614-C is printed in English and Spanish. It is also available to be downloaded from irs.gov in the following languages: Chinese, Chinese Traditional, Creole, Korean, Polish, Tagalog, Portuguese and Vietnamese.

The Intake Process: Verifying Identity

Identity Theft continues to be a nationwide problem. The interview should begin by requiring photo ID to verify the identity of the taxpayer and spouse on the tax return.

Exceptions for requiring photo ID should only be made under extreme circumstances or for taxpayers known to the site after being approved by the site coordinator.

For more information, please refer to Publication 4299, Privacy, Confidentiality and Civil Rights - A Public Trust.

The Intake Process Return and Volunteer Certification Levels

The site must have a process to ensure the return is within scope of the VITA/TCE Programs and to identify the certification level needed for the tax return. The site must also have a process to ensure volunteers have the certification needed for the returns they prepare.

Form 13614-C includes certification levels as shown:

- (B) for Basic
- (HSA) for Health Savings Account
- (A) for Advanced
- (M) for Military

Yes	No	Unsure	Part III – Income – Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse) Receive
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	1. (B) Wages or Salary? (Form W-2) If yes, how many jobs did you have last year? _____
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	2. (A) Tip Income?

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	6. (B) Alimony income or separate maintenance payments?

The Intake Process

Referrals To Low Income Tax Clinics (LITC's)

Some taxpayers come to the site for help with tax issues, not only to have their return prepared. The Low Income Taxpayer Clinic (LITC) provides services to taxpayers who are low income or who speak English as a second language (ESL).

Clinics participating in the LITC program provide:

- Representation for individuals with disputes with the IRS;
- Education about taxpayer rights and responsibilities; and
- Advocacy on behalf of low income and ESL taxpayers.

LITC services are free or low cost for eligible taxpayers. Each clinic determines whether prospective clients meet their guidelines. Ask your Site Coordinator if there are LITC's available in your area or go to www.irs.gov and search "LITC" for more information and the locations of help near your location.

Note: Publication 4012 has information about various ways a taxpayer can get help with IRS issues.

The Interview Process

Do not begin entering taxpayer information into the software until you have completed a thorough interview with the taxpayer because you may find at any point in this interview process that:

- The tax return is above the required certification level
- The tax return is outside the scope of the VITA/TCE Programs
- The taxpayer does not have all needed information or documentation

Discovering these things before starting a return will save your time, the taxpayer's time, and will avoid much frustration.

The Interview Process: Clarifying Questions

The volunteer should update or correct the intake sheet with any changes identified during the interview with the taxpayer.

This review and discussion is a great opportunity to engage the taxpayer in a conversation. Make sure the taxpayer understands all of the questions and that you understand all of their answers.

Clarifying information while reviewing Form 13614-C during the Interview is a very effective way to gather all needed information.

For example:

"You marked that no one else lived in your home. Is that correct?"

"Is your pension your only source of income?"

"You stated no one can claim you as a dependent. I will ask additional questions to make sure we file accurately"

The Interview Process: Conflicting Information

Be alert for conflicting information. Sometimes an entry on one part will raise a question on another part of Form 13614-C.

For example:

- "I see that you and your husband both worked, yet you did not indicate you paid any child care expenses for your 3 year old son."
- "I see that you are over the age of 65, yet you did not indicate that you received Social Security benefits."
- "I see that you answered "No" to the question 'Can anyone claim you on their tax return?' But since you're a student living with you parents, I'm wondering if they can claim you."

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part I - Your Personal Information

Verify that the information in Part I is correct and complete.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part I - Your Personal Information

Information in Part I impacts tax law determinations.

For example, when a taxpayer is a full time student it may impact multiple tax law issues such as:

- Child and Dependent Care Credit
- Retirement Savings Contributions Credit
- Various Education Credits
- Whether the taxpayer can be claimed as a dependent

0. Last year, was your spouse:		a. Full-time student

b. Totally and permanently disabled		c. Legally blind
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No

Note: Use Publication 17 to verify that the taxpayer meets the full time student requirement.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part 1

The fact that the taxpayer is Totally and Permanently Disabled or Blind may affect multiple tax law issues such as:

- Personal exemption
- Pension taxability
- Whether the taxpayer can be claimed as a dependent

Totally and permanently disabled		<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>	No
8. Last year, was your spouse:
a. Full-time student		<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>	No
b. Totally and permanently disabled		<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	No
c. Legally blind		<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>	No

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part II -Marital Status and Household Information

Information in this section will help the preparer make determinations about:

- Filing Status
- Dependency Exemptions
- Various credits and deductions.

2. List the names below of:

- everyone who lived with you last year (other than your spouse)
- anyone you supported but did not live with you last year

If additional space is needed check here and list on page 3

Note: Many taxpayers think they should only list "dependents." Be sure to discuss this section with the taxpayer.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 – Overview

A critical part of the interview process is to make sure all the questions on page 2 of Form 13614-C are complete. The taxpayer may have left a question unanswered or marked the question "Unsure" because they did not understand.

Yes	No	Unsure	Check appropriate box for each question in each section
Part III – Income – Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse) Receive
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	1. (B) Wages or Salary? (Form W-2) If yes, how much?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	2. (A) Tip Income?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	3. (B) Scholarships? (Forms W-2, 1098-T)

These questions should be discussed with the taxpayer to determine the correct "Yes" or "No" response, and recorded on the form prior to beginning the tax return preparation.

Note: Make notes on Form 13614-C during your interview and use the Additional Tax Preparer notes section on page 4 to ensure the Quality Reviewer has all of the required information to determine the return is accurate.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 - Part III Income

Taxpayers are asked about income received and should check the appropriate line item “Yes”, “No”, or “Unsure”.

Each income item includes the type of form used to report the income (in parenthesis). As you discuss each of the questions, the volunteer must ensure that the answers correlate with the documents provided by the taxpayer. The volunteer must change the original answer on Form 13614-C with any updated information.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Page 2 - Part III Income

It is necessary to ask clarifying questions, even if all the questions are answered.

For example, if the taxpayer checks “Yes” to the question “Distribution from Pension, Annuities and/or IRA?”, and they have already given you a Form 1099-R from an IRA Distribution.

You should then ask, “Is this your only distribution?”

- | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 10. (B) Disability income? (such as payments from insurance, or workers compensation) (Forms 1099-R, W-2) |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 11. (A) Distribution from Pensions, Annuities, and/or IRA? (Form 1099-R) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 12. (B) Unemployment compensation? (Form 1099-G) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 13. (B) Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits? (Forms SSA-1099, RRB-1099) |

At that point, you may find the taxpayer left a Form 1099-R at home and will have to return with it before the return can be prepared.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part III - Income

Volunteers must conduct an extensive interview to ensure that taxpayers who are self-employed are reporting all income including cash payments received for work performed.

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	5. (B) Interest or dividend income? (Form 1099-D)
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	6. (B) Alimony income?
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	7. (A) Self-Employment income? (Form 1099-MISC, cash)
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	8. (A) Cash/check payments for any work performed not reported on Forms W-2 or 1099?
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	9. (A) Income (or loss) from the sale of Stocks, Bonds or Real Estate? (including your home) (Forms 1099-S, 1099-B)
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	10. (B) Disability income? (such as payments from insurance, or workers compensation) (Forms 1099-R, W-2)

Note: You should always verify the taxpayer has provided all the necessary source documents and information.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part IV - Expenses

Questions in this section help alert the preparer to expenses paid by the taxpayer that may affect their return.

Part IV - Expenses - Last Year, Did You (or Your Spouse) Pay
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	1. (B) Alimony? If yes, do you have the recipient's SSN? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	2. Contributions to a retirement account? <input type="checkbox"/> IRA (A) <input type="checkbox"/> Roth IRA (B) <input type="checkbox"/> 401K (B) <input type="checkbox"/> Other
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	3. (B) Post secondary educational expenses for yourself, spouse or dependents? (Form 1098-T)
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	4. (B) Unreimbursed employee business expenses? (such as uniforms or mileage)
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	5. (B) Medical expenses? (including health insurance premiums)

The fact that a taxpayer had an expense is not the only consideration for a tax deduction or credit.

You will need to use your reference materials to determine eligibility for deductions and credits and take into consideration the most advantageous position for the taxpayer.

The Interview Process: Form 13614-C Part V - Life Events

The Life Events section asks numerous questions that relate to the calculation of tax and the processing of the return.

Reporting changes will help to make sure you are getting the proper amount of advance payments.

Reminder: Verify bank account information is entered correctly. Refunds may only be directly deposited into accounts bearing the taxpayer's name. Use source documents, such as bank statement or check when entering account and routing numbers.

The Interview Process: Due Diligence

IRS-certified volunteer preparers are required to exercise due diligence. This means, as a volunteer, you are required to do your part when preparing or quality reviewing a tax return to ensure the information on the return is correct and complete.

Generally, as an IRS tax law-certified volunteer, you can rely in good faith on information from a taxpayer without requiring documentation as verification.

However, part of due diligence requires asking a taxpayer to clarify information that may appear to be inconsistent or incomplete. When reviewing information for its accuracy, you need to ask yourself if the information is unusual or questionable.

For example: You do not need to see proof of a taxpayers' health insurance coverage if you feel comfortable that this information is not unusual or questionable.

Remember, if you are not comfortable with the information provided by a taxpayer, you are not obligated to prepare the tax return.

Preparing the Tax Return

After you complete the intake and interview process, prepare the return in the tax preparation software.

Consult references and tools to determine filing status, exemptions, income, adjustments, deductions, credits, or payments.

Remember: Publication 4012 contains tax law information, and guidance on using tools embedded in the IRS-provided software. Other references include Publication 17 and Volunteer Tax Alerts.

Once the return is prepared, a Quality Reviewer will use Part VIII of Form 13614-C to complete the Quality Review.

Quality Review Process Introduction

The purpose of a Quality Review is to ensure that the taxpayer's tax return is accurate based on the Intake/Interview Sheet, and the supporting documents provided by the taxpayer and the interview with the taxpayer.

Sites will conduct a Quality Review of every return prepared. Having a second pair of eyes, focused on the Quality Review, offers the best opportunity to correct small errors before they can cause big problems.

The Quality Review takes place after the return is prepared, but before the taxpayer signs the return.

Quality Reviewer

At a minimum, volunteers serving as Quality Reviewers will need to be certified at the certification level needed to prepare the return.

For example: If the tax return contains Military tax law issues, the IRS tax law-certified preparer and the Quality Reviewer must both be certified at the Military certification level.

The Quality Reviewer should be one of the most experienced tax law certified volunteers at the site and have:

- An in-depth understanding of tax law and how/where it is applied to the tax return;
- An understanding of the return preparation process;
- Good communication skills; and
- Tact in dealing with taxpayers and volunteers.

Quality Review Method

The quality review method that a site uses depends on the site size, the number of experienced volunteers available, and the certification level of the volunteers at the site.

There are two acceptable methods:

- Designated Review - This preferred quality review method employs a designated Quality Reviewer, a volunteer who is solely dedicated to reviewing returns prepared by the other volunteers at the site.
- Peer Review - When a designated Quality Reviewer is not available, volunteers can review each other's returns.

Note: Self-Review, quality reviewing a return you prepared, is not an acceptable quality review method.

Helpful Hints For Quality Reviews

- Take your time because a few extra minutes now could save hours correcting errors.
- Include taxpayers in the process.
- Be sure that the Quality Reviewer has the completed Form 13614-C and all documents that were provided by the taxpayer.
- Explain to taxpayers they are responsible for the information on their return so they should feel confident their return is accurate.
- Use your reference materials to ensure all tax law is applied correctly. The flow charts and decision trees in the Publication 4012 are designed to address the issues most often encountered at VITA/TCE Sites.

Concepts of the Quality Review

The quality reviewer compares the information provided on all source documents and Form 13614-C to the tax return.

A comprehensive quality review involves more than simply checking data entries (typos, spelling, and omissions). The volunteer must interact with the taxpayer to confirm and clarify the taxpayer's information and ensure correct application of tax law.

Concepts of the Quality Review

The process must include these basic elements:

- The Quality Reviewer makes sure that all items on the Form 13614-C have been completed, including the shaded areas required to be completed by the preparer, and that the answers are clear.
- All issues on the tax return are within the scope of the VITA/TCE Programs and within the certification level of the volunteer.
- A review of all personal information in Parts I and II to ensure the Filing Status and dependency determinations are correct.

A review of all income reported in Part III to ensure:

- All tax documents were accounted for and entered.
- Income is consistent with prior year returns, if data is available.
- Ensure all income was reported, especially self-employment and all cash income.

Concepts of the Quality Review

Review all expenses reported in Part IV to ensure that only qualifying expenses were entered on the return.

For example:

- Deductible home mortgage interest was entered on Schedule A.
- Credit card interest was not on the tax return.
- All available adjustments to income were included.
- The appropriate deduction (standard or itemized) was used to compute taxable income.
- All available credits were applied to reduce total tax.

Concepts of the Quality Review

Review life events in Part V to ensure any events affecting the return were confirmed and correctly entered.

Review the taxpayer's responses to ACA questions in Part VI to ensure:

- Minimum Essential Coverage for each month of the year was properly reflected for each person.
- Any appropriate exemptions were identified and recorded on Form 8965.
- Any Shared Responsibility Payments are accurate and appropriate.
- Premium Tax Credits were correctly reconciled, if applicable, on Form 8962.

Note: ACA requires a comprehensive and in-depth interview to confirm the Minimum Essential Coverage for every person on the return.

Concepts of the Quality Review

A review of Part VII to confirm the taxpayer's preferences for receiving a refund or making a payment for balance due on the tax return.

Validate bank account information was entered correctly on the tax return.

Complete the Quality Review by:

- Confirming that there are no incomplete forms or schedules.
- Addressing any software errors.
- Answering any taxpayer questions.
- Discussing any discrepancies or errors with the tax preparer as appropriate.
- Advising taxpayers of their responsibility for the accuracy of the information on the tax return after quality review is completed but before the taxpayer signs the tax return.

Course Summary

In this course, you have learned that:

- SPEC has determined there is a direct correlation between the proper use of Form 13614-C and the preparation of an accurate tax return.
- Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview and Quality Review Sheet, must be used to complete and quality review all tax returns at VITA/TCE sites.
- An effective interview must be performed to verify tax information for each tax return.
- All quality reviews must be conducted by a designated or peer-to-peer quality reviewer.
